

Brian Witthuhn assists individuals and entities in defending against or navigating criminal and regulatory investigations and enforcement actions. Brian also represents individuals convicted of crimes on appeal before New York State's appellate courts and in habeas corpus petitions before federal courts.

Prior to joining Weddle Law, Brian served for five years as an Assistant District Attorney in Nassau County. He began his career in the Special Victims Bureau prosecuting domestic violence and sex offenses. He conducted over twelve trials to verdict as a member of the Special Victims Bureau. He then joined the Appeals Bureau, where he briefed and argued cases in New York's appellate courts and responded to habeas corpus petitions in federal court. He handled some of the bureau's most significant, complex assignments, including homicide and serious sex offense appeals. Brian personally conducted thirteen arguments before New York's intermediate appellate courts.

Experience

- Represents former bank executive in administrative enforcement proceeding brought by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.
- Represents real estate investor in connection with SEC investigation.
- As a prosecutor, lead counsel in more than twelve trials and dozens of pretrial suppression hearings.
- As a prosecutor, authored over twenty briefs to, and argued thirteen appeals before, New York appellate courts.

Brian Witthuhn Attorney

212-568-6846
bwitthuhn@weddlelaw.com

Education

Columbia University School of Law, J.D. 2014
Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar

The George Washington University, B.A., magna cum laude, 2010
Presidential Academic Scholarship recipient

Bar Admissions

New York